DIED IN MEMPHIS.

Mrs. Charles B. Duke, a Former Resident of this City.

Mrs. Charles B. Duke, who had been quite ill for some time, died in Memphis, Tenn., last Thursday.

She was a Miss Lewis of Clark county, and after marriage made her home in this city, where Mr. Duke's family resided and where he was for one term Deputy Sheriff.

Some years ago he went South, and for a long time he has been in the Government service, connected with the Mississippi River Commission with headquarters at Memphis.

About four weeks ago I began using your Rivelink Water. At that time I was suffering from obsticate constipation, and had been for x long time using your Rivelink water in the law as suffering from obsticate constipation, and had been for x long time using yet yet one in the law and the law any apparent henefit: In fact, was getting worse. Since I have been drinking the linelick Water I have need wery greatly benefited and have not taken any modicine since. I gave some of it to Judge Hills and John Cox, and they both claim to have been greatly improved by it, and units with me in saying that we do not want to be without it. Please send a half barrel; together with charges for the same I sam more than thankful for the great favor you have shown me, and trust that I shall be able some time to return the favor. If the water will do far other people what it has done for more it will meet with a ready sale at most any cores you may place upon it. A trial will prove the little and value. Yours very truly.

ROME, June 9th, 1901.

Editor Maysville Ledger: Rome and Italy have not changed very much since my last visit here. A great evolution has taken place in the political events of the country. The triple alliance is, to all appearances, still in vigor: facto all appearances, still in vigor; fac-tors, however, are continually at work to substitute France and Russia for Austria and Prussia as the confederate powers of the Italian Government. The Pan-Germanic ghost, gaunt and fearful, is disturbing the rest of and causing bad dreams to the diplomatic chess players of Europe. Italy is having a good share of these nightmares, made more terrible by interested suggestions from abroad. Emperor William of Gerfrom abroad. Emperor William of Germany does nothing to allay their fears; on the contrary, by his patriotic speeches, perambulations and allusions to the great future mission of the Fatherland helps to increase the anxiety in the patient breast of full many a diplomat. It is an open secret confidentially told the reading public in the press of every color and Nationality that should a disruption of the dual Empire of Austria follow the death of the now aged Emperor Joseph, that portion formed by the German element would naturally be incorporated with the Prussian Confederacy. Belgium and Holland are almost openly looked upon in the recent meetings of Berlin as the future appanage of this dominant power, whilst the districts of Istria and Trieste, intensely Italian but now part of the Program and Arrangements for the an-nual reunion of the Sixteenth Infantry and Tenth Kentucky Cavalry, to be dergo the same fate. Were these possibilities to become a reality, the Adriatic held in this city, it was ordered that the reunion is to be continued for two days, beginning Thursday, October 3d, 1901.

England, cool and calculating, looks complacently on the diplomatic chessboard, and may only vouchsafe to suggest a move or prevent one if self-interest affects the game. Russia, France and Italy are frightened by the dismal specter of Pan-Germanism; what the Cabinet of St. James fears is Pan-Slavism. The Balkan and Eastern presents in its entire the capture of the captur

It will depend a great deal on the vocal organs of the individual parties interested in the grand opera to drown the voice of the others. In the meautime the Italians and French are saying the system these of tion of the new social gospel is to be found in a sort of scientific evolution as surely to come as any results subject to a necessary law. The votaries of this school deprecate force, violence and ex-treme measures as entirely useless, be-the religious. The essence of religion points to the happiness and blessings ence and resignation to the many ills the flesh is heir to. With these views the Collectivist has no sympathy. One of them boldly said, "We leave heaven to the angels, the sky to the birds; for us we claim the earth, and are entirely satisfied with it." Of course, all Socialists must not be included under these three headings. In fact generous and vigorous souls, in touch with the mis-eries and afflictions of poor suffering humanity, have opened a crusade in favor of labor under the flag of Christianity. Christian Socialism, in the best sense of the word, as represented by Count De Mun in France, and ever championed by Leo XIII., is making progress. Withai Europe is at present flooded by subversive ideas. The burden of taxition caused by the necessity of

Just now Rome is emerging from a local crisis during which the streets were black with men who had stepped down and out at the bid of some agitator. When I reached the harbor of Naples I found that all the employed on the docks were out on a strike. The same condition of affairs obtains now in Genoa, Milan and other Italian cities. An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be frank; anticipated. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in Fine Words? Most of them seem to say something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials; turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the product hasn't vant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the product hasn't enough of it. Fine feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpetings, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality considered. Respectfully,
